Credit Completion is a way to save credits that would otherwise be lost due to chronic absenteeism. You are allowed 5 unexcused absences for each block. For every unexcused absence over 5 you owe 30 minutes (1/2 hour) of credit completion. If you fail to comply you will lose credit from that block for that semester. You are deemed absent from a block if you miss 43 minutes or more.

Example 1: Student has 6 full days of unexcused absences. That student would owe 2 hours of credit completion.

Example 2: Student is late to school 7 times, arriving at 10:06 each day. The student has missed more than ½ of 1st block 7 times, therefore owing 1 hour of credit completion.
